Melting

Warpaint

Take off your raincoat, baby
I want to touch the skin
The only way out from this cold unknowing
Is to radiate like this
'Cause you know my ways now
And you're making fire in our house
And it's melting, melting, melting me down
Melting, melting, melting me down

You're the only one I want
You know I need you around
No more armor, no anxiety
And I'm ready to move over
I'm receiving you now
I'm the gold, you're the alchemy

That is melting, melting, melting me down
Melting, melting, helping me out

'Cause you know my ways now
There's a phoenix fire burning in my house
And it's melting, melting, melting me down
Melting, melting, melting me down
Melting, melting, melting me down
Helping, helping, helping me out
