Trouble

Warpaint

Ooh, you're in trouble
Ooh, you're in trouble
Ooh, you're in trouble
Ooh

I'm in trouble again
Seems I always have been Getting caught in a fight
Where no one can be right
Letting go on this end
Of this trouble

No looking back
You're on the other shore
Look where you land
You're there already
Goodbye

Trouble
I carried with me all that you had said
Trouble
But now I need your voice out of my head
Did you see me hiding?
Did you see me low?
Did you feel me rising?
Or did you wanna watch me fall?
When will I feel it let me go?

No looking back
You're on the other shore
Look where you land
You are already home
See the expanse
You have already crossed
Across an ocean
I am in motion
When will I feel it let me go?
When will I feel it let me go?

Trouble
Trouble
Goodbye trouble
Trouble
