

These Changes

Warren Haynes

World is spinning 'round
Whirling like a top
My head is reeling
Can't seem to make it stop

All these changes
Everybody must go through
Why should it be different for me and you

I need you more than you know
But I just can't seem to let you know

All these changes
In everything we touch
All these changes
Sometimes it's just too much

People come and go
Strangers in and out
Of life's revolving doorway
Getting lost in the fallout

All these changes
That cut deep in our souls
It's enough to make you weary
Make you lose self-control

I try so hard to lift you up
But I keep letting you down
And you say you think you've had enough

All these changes
Pushing us apart
All these changes
Leave us stranded in the dark

You say "why can't it be the way it used to be?"
I don't know
There's a hundred reasons
But I just can't see them
In the moment
Caught up in the moment
Caught up in the changes

I need you more than you know
So much it hurts
But I just can't seem to let things go

All these changes
Pushing us apart
All these change
Leave us stranded in the dark

All these changes
The hand that life has dealt
All these changes
Feeling like we've never felt
