

CATASTROPHE

Warren Hue

I'm feeling your symphony, from you, from you
Our melodies collide but you're on a different vibe yeah, a fire burning so bright, burning up like starlight, it's a beautiful
catastrophe
Yeah you, yeah me

Wish I could turn the time back, and I press rewind that, rewind yeah

I just know we're better, together, you and me
Ain't no one could ever, leisure you like me

I don't Need a text, I don't need call
Been through it all

(Been through it all)

Tell me if you wanted me Couple trees worth of green cut the scene, I don't need you coming for me for the inbox uh, I just need you to really kick rock, uh, couple people saying that the kid rock huh, then why you speaking to me like you kids bop huh?

Look me straight in the iris
You cannot take my advices

(Dance)

Uh couple thousand ideas running in my head tho, I don't want a chick tryna take over my headphones, I don't want the bred wrong, I just need the bed strong
Yeah

Why you acting like we versing or something, gotta version of something, I get personal from it, I urge from the stomach, and the verses upcoming, I get hurt when you first acting thirsty a round him, I get perfect amounts and the curtains go blind

I just know we're better, together, you and me

Hurts in the surface, all I'm feeling is your Symphony, from you, from you

Our melodies collide but you're on a different vibe yeah, a fire
burning so bright, burning up like starlight, it's a beautiful
catastrophe
Yeah you, yeah me
