

Betrayal

Warren Zeiders

This is story about betrayal
Why's it always happen without fail
Why'd ya have to run us off the rails
What the hell
This isn't how I pictured you and I
Smile in my face while ya twist the knife
Shame on me if ya fool me twice
Fooled me twice
Yeah, even though I hate you
How come leaving ain't as easy
As loving you... as loving you

One day you just got up and left
Left me right here just to clean up the mess
Not one phone call not even a text
It's the last damn thing I would ever expect
And ooh...
I've never felt so used
All I got from you

Is a story about betrayal
Why's it always happen without fail
Why'd ya have to run us off the rails
What the hell
This isn't how I pictured you and I
Smile in my face while ya twist the knife
Shame on me if ya fool me twice
Fooled me twice
Yeah, even though I hate you
How come leaving ain't as easy
As loving you... as loving you
How come leaving ain't as easy as...

Giving you my time that I can't get back
Can't get back
Standing by my side in a photograph
Photograph
Gave you a life that I shouldn't have Shouldn't have
I wish it wasn't true
When it comes to me and you

Is a story about betrayal
Why's it always happen without fail
Why'd ya have to run us off the rails
What the hell
This isn't how I pictured you and I
Smile in my face while ya twist the knife
Shame on me if ya fool me twice
Fooled me twice
Yeah, even though I hate you
How come leaving ain't as easy
As loving you... as loving you
