

Love's A Leavin'

Warren Zeiders

Girl, I really hate to make your pretty green eyes turn blue
You wear my heart on your sleeve just like them tattoos
And I remember the way that it was before that sun set down on us

So how can I be high when I feel so damn low?
Tried my bible, some bourbon and that red dashboard glow
Found my way to that deep end, last breath ain't breathin'
Man, I should have seen it since our love's a leavin', our love
's a leavin'
Our love's a leavin'

Girl, I know you know there's no good way to say goodbye
Tryna make this work's like trying to make our stars align
I remember the way that it was 'fore our dirt road done turned into dust

So how can I be high when I feel so damn low?
Tried my bible, some bourbon and that red dashboard glow
Found my way to that deep end, last breath ain't breathin'
Man, I should have seen it since our love's a leavin', our love
's a leavin'
Our love's a leavin'

On that fast track, it may never come back
Our love's a leavin', our love's a leavin'

How can I be high when I feel so damn low?
Tried my bible, some bourbon and that red dashboard glow
Found my way to that deep end, last breath ain't breathin'
Man, I should have seen it since our love's a leavin', our love
's a leavin'
Our love's a leavin'
Our love's a leavin'
Our love's a leavin'
Our love's a leavin'

I guess our love's a leavin'
