

Stone

Warren Zeiders

This is a song called "Stone"

Well, the night is my companion
And the highway is my home
Got me seekin' for one last beacon
Every single place I roam
They say Jesus was a poor man
Guess I wish I had a little more of Him in me
Make it easy to goin' on livin'
With heartache and misery

Sweet, sweet heart of mine
I'm gonna break again a million times
Or is this too far gone?
Or have you turned to stone?

Well, I guess I got my bottle
And I stay on it all the time
But it keeps me smilin' and singin'
Helps me fall asleep a little bit better at night
They say life is like a dagger
Backstage, full of parasites
They'll love you and drain your everything you own
Just to feel better about their lives

Sweet, sweet heart of mine
I'm gonna break again a million times
Or is this too far gone?
Or have you turned to stone?

Sweet, sweet heart of mine
I'm gonna break again a million times
Or is this too far gone?
Sweet, sweet heart of mine
I'm gonna break again a million times
Or is this too far gone?
Or have you turned to stone?
