

Without You

Warren Zeiders

If it ain't your eyes looking in mine
Any other green is a wasted time
If it ain't your heart beating in a dark mine
Might as well stop, shoulda never let it start
You're the only story written in my stars

I'll love you today, I'll love you tomorrow
Wherever you go, my love's gonna follow
Never held a ghost but I'll figure out how to
If you left me a world without you, without you
I'll never love again
I'll never love again

You're the only look back I ever need to have
Ain't my future, I'll be in the past
Maybe while I try I'm never gonna find
Any other hand that'll fit in mine
Truth is that our souls, they must be tied

I'll love you today, I'll love you tomorrow
Wherever you go, my love's gonna follow
Never held a ghost but I'll figure out how to
If you left me a world without you, without you
I'll never love again
I'll never love again

Without you, without you
Without you, without you, oh

I'll love you today, I'll love you tomorrow
Wherever you go, my love's gonna follow
Never held a ghost but I'll figure out how to
If you left me a world without you, without you
I'll never love again
I'll never love again
I'll never love again
I'll never love again
