

Letting Go

Washed Out

I don't mind anymore
We crossed that line a long time ago
We're so far away
And past the give-and-take
So why can't I just say?

Don't you ever let it show
'Cause the hardest part is letting go
Before I walk on out the door
Dry your eyes and move on

It's a lonely road
Never thought it'd be so hard to let you go
But the thing that hurts the most
Is how fast you'd given up
So why can't I let go?

Don't you ever let it show
'Cause the hardest part is letting go
Before I walk on out the door
Dry your eyes and move on

Don't you ever let it show
'Cause the hardest part is letting go
