

Reckless Desires

Washed Out

Should I have seen it coming?
Should I have guessed the truth?
How could I have known you were lying
When my whole life is you?

Caught in a fire
Caught inside a lie
Now my entire world's gone wrong
Your reckless desires
Keep tearing me apart
It's burning a hole right through my heart

You swore that it was over
You swore that it was through
But every time I turn my back
You found yourself in someone's bed again
The lies begin to start
Our story falls apart

How was I so blind?
Feel lost for all this time

Caught in a fire
Caught inside a lie
Now my entire world's gone wrong
Your reckless desires
Keep tearing me apart
It's burning a hole right through my heart

Caught in a fire
Caught inside a lie
Now my entire world's gone wrong
Your reckless desires
Keep tearing me apart
It's burning a hole right through my heart
