

Switches

Washington

I wanna go back
And if I ever see you again
Want you to know that
I got it in the back of my brain

It's the shape of the bone inside the cheek
And the way I get tangled in the sheets
And it's waking me up when I'm asleep
And it's waking me up
I don't remember ever liking that (I don't remember ever liking that)

And when I woke up
I'd fallen asleep on the lawn
I raise my hands up
To the electrical storm

Ooh, it's the sound of the music in my head
And I get it confused with what you said
Or was it the news?
I pull the thread and it's all coming loose
I don't remember anything 'bout that
I don't remember anything 'bout that

I get lost in the memory of it
Everything that I left behind
I get lost in the memory of it
I've got all these switches in my mind
I get lost in the memory of it
Everything that I left behind
I get lost in the memory of it
I've got all these switches in my mind

I wanna go back
And if I ever see you again
I'm gonna say that
It wasn't 'til I met you that the colour started bleeding back in

It's the shape of the bone inside the cheek
And the way I get tangled in the sheets
And it's waking me up when I'm asleep
And it's waking me up
I don't remember ever liking that
I don't remember ever liking that
Ooh, it's the sound of the music in my head
And I get it confused with what you said
Or was it the news?
I pull the thread and it's all coming loose
I don't remember anything 'bout that
I don't remember anything 'bout that

I get lost in the memory of it
Everything that I left behind
I get lost in the memory of it
I've got all these switches in my mind
I get lost in the memory of it
Everything that I left behind
I get lost in the memory of it

I've got all these switches in my mind

No one ever tells you that it's going to hurt, I still wear your t-shirt
No one ever tells you that it's going to hurt, I still wear your t-shirt
No one ever tells you that it's going to hurt, I still wear your t-shirt
No one ever tells you that it's going to hurt, I still wear your t-shirt
