

Sinking, sinking slowly
Sinking down, can't hold my breath
Sinking out of your respect
Drifting, drifting freely
Drifting through your mind
Drifting out of space and time

Gazing through a glass, am I just dreaming?
Falling fast
Or is my view of all your thinking
Impossible?
Lost in lands of dreams of different kingdoms
Worlds unseen
But something's wrong, it's all too perfect
Impossible

Flying, flying solo
Flying through your clouds of white
Flying from another fight
Floating, floating far from home
Floating so high up
Floating 'til we're out of love

Gazing through a glass, am I just dreaming?
Falling fast
Or is my view of all your thinking
Impossible?
Lost in lands of dreams of different kingdoms
Worlds unseen
But something's wrong, it's all too perfect
Impossible

I don't want it to end
Don't want to pretend
That it wasn't real from the start
It will break us apart
Oh, no, no
I don't want it to end
Don't want to pretend
That it wasn't real from the start
It will break us apart

Gazing through a glass, am I just dreaming?
Falling fast
Or is my view of all your thinking
Impossible?
Lost in lands of dreams of different kingdoms
Worlds unseen
But something's wrong, it's all too perfect
Impossible, oh

Gazing through a glass, am I just dreaming?
Falling fast
Or is my view of all your thinking
Impossible?
Lost in lands of dreams of different kingdoms
Worlds unseen

But something's wrong, it's all too perfect
Impossible, oh
