

Another High

Wasted Penguinz

We've been letting this go on for way too long
Pretending that we're fine though it's all wrong
Still when you called it off, took me by surprise
Now I just feel so lost, gotta pay the price
How can I numb the pain, well I don't know
Guess I'm scared to be alone

I'm just getting started, I'm living a lie
I'm pushing my troubles down the line
Afraid to be brokenhearted, so every night
I'm running around and 'round to find

Find another high [4x]

I'm just getting started, I'm living a lie
I'm pushing my troubles down the line
Afraid to be brokenhearted, so every night
I'm running around and 'round to find

Find another high [2x]

I'm no good at being on my own
I'll be anyone's tonight who takes me home
'Cause since you called it off, it's an act I play
I try to fill the space, give myself away
I'm looking for a cure, go from door to door
I'm scared to be alone

I'm just getting started, I'm living a lie
I'm pushing my troubles down the line
Afraid to be brokenhearted, so every night
I'm running around and 'round to find

Find another high [11x]
