

Reaper

Watain

I close your eyes and send you into vainly dreams I reign your soul
the night engulf your painful screams

I watch you cry and twist your soul in agony No prayers can save you now from hell in eternity

I devastate your soul and lacerate your mind In sin I sanctify my sword to crush your spine

[I'm the] Reaper
You're too confused you can't elude my misty eyes No need to hang on to your faith in love and life

Whatever I command your soul obeys my needs You're like a zombie now with a soul that burns and bleeds

There's not much left of you your soul belongs to me Nothing can save you now or set your spirit free

[I'm the] Reaper

[Coming to take you]

I love the sight of having you down and open wide The smell of a dead woman's flesh just drives me fucking wild

I have to got you in my grasp now there is no need to escape I'll penetrate you every virgin needs a rape

Just when you think you have gone through all that gives you pain I'm coming back to you to penetrate again

[I'm the Reaper]
