

We can fuck about it later if you want
It's all we ever really do when something's wrong
'Cause you, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later
We can fuck about it later if you want
Because we never fix the problems that we've got
Baby, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later
We can fuck about it later if you want
It's all we ever really do when something's wrong
'Cause you, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later

I like you, but I need some space
I like you kinda far away
It's not hard to kill a day
Lookin' at your face
I like you, but I need some room
Been givin' me your attitude
It doesn't always stay that way
I hate the aftertaste
I hate the aftertaste, no, no, yeah

We can fuck about it later if you want
It's all we ever really do when something's wrong
'Cause you, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later
We can fuck about it later if you want
Because we never fix the problems that we've got
Baby, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later

All of this space is suffocating
You suck at communicating
You're so busy isolating
Craving you's excruciating
I get it if you need a minute
But whenever I need you it's crickets
My overthinking is so turbulent
Why be with someone who's off limits?
You were my God now I'm an infidel
I sold myself for property in hell
When I try to love you I get repelled
You wanna fuck about it?
Go fuck yourself

We can fuck about it later if you want
It's all we ever really do when something's wrong
'Cause you, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later
We can fuck about it later if you want
Because we never fix the problems that we've got
Baby, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later, oh

We can fuck about it later if you want
It's all we ever really do when something's wrong

'Cause you, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later
We can fuck about it later if you want
Because we never fix the problems that we've got
Baby, you don't seem to like it when we talk
I guess I'll see you later, see you later
