I used to want to save you
Now I don't
I used to need your voice
And now I need to sleep alone
You were supposed to be the first sigh
Worth all of the long nights
Turning on your high beams
Dying in your mood light

I think I talk too much
I try to walk it off
But now you got your gloves
And now you boxed me out
I'm out the ring
But the only ring I want
Is the ring around your finger
But your middle one's up
I've had enough
I try to brush it off
'Cause you're my confidante
So let's talk
Share secrets
I've got some dirty laundry
Can you keep it?

I never promised you your dream boy
I'm better as your chew toy
Love, love, love
The heart I gave, it was a decoy
I'm just here to destroy
Love, love, love
I never promised you your dream boy
I'm better as your chew toy
Love, love, love
The heart I gave, it was a decoy
I'm just here to destroy
Love, love, love

(I never promised you your dream boy)

You're not worth my color
You're not worth another
Headache, you're dead weight
You're gonna be just like your mother
I tried to make life a movie
Yeah, here, I got you a preview
I had 101 wishes
And lost them all on you

I think I talk too much
I try to walk it off
But now you got your gloves
I'm out the ring
