Waterparks

You freak me out
So I stay in
Do you see me now?
Do you have my PIN?
No, I don't know how
You'll show up or when
But it freaks me out
So I stay in

You say "Boy I'm not a stalker
But I watch you when you're walking
You call all kinds of people who aren't me
You love me in such weird ways
Like when you lead me back to your place
You do it without words
But don't you worry 'cause I heard everything."

Now you're looking through the peephole
On the door of my apartment
My panic's at the ceiling
But I'm flat down on the carpet
You say
"Boy, I know you're in there
And the way you tease is unfair
And this ain't "Misery"
But I'd break your knees
To keep you here with me
But I'd break your knees
To keep you here with me
Break your knees
To keep you here with me (yeah)"

You freak me out
So I stay in
Alone on my couch
Watching Netflix again
It's like I'm watching "You"
But it's about me
And just to be clear
I mean the show, you're Joe

"Boy I'm not a stalker
But I watch you when you're walking
You call all kinds of people who aren't me (yeah)
You love me in such weird ways
Like when you lead me back to your place
You do it without words
But don't you worry 'cause I heard--"

Now you're looking through the peephole
On the door of my apartment

Looking through the peephole

She said

("Break your knees
To keep you here with me")
"You call all kinds of people who aren't me"

I'm not leaving any signs
Like the kind you think you find
