

Maybe I've been walking along with grief
Can't find the love within my heart
Been chasing my greed without you

Can you settle down my soul
And take me back to the days of old with you

Oh, Holyland
Watch your breeze take over me
Just like we used to be
Let me float in your arms
So come back to me (Ooh)

I'm laying in the grass
A daydream in the sun
I'm back inside your peace

Settle me
Can you settle down my soul
And take me back to the days of old with you

Oh, Holyland
Watch your breeze take over me
Just like we used to be
Let me float in your arms, in your arms
So come back to me (Ooh)
Oh, so come back to me, oh

Secrets and silence (Secrets)
Oh, peace on my eyelids
How vulnerable I'm in this land (Peace on my eyelids)
Secrets and silence (Secrets)
Oh, peace on my eyelids
How vulnerable I'm in this land
