Sunshine, strawberry wine a little taste of leather and lace colour blind its all in my mind temporary insanity when everything is wrong

It's a perfect day for feelin' this way it's a hell of a time for speaking your mind when nothing is as it seems daydream

Candy, sweet as can be im so tall ill crush em all higher, flying away wave goodbye to yesterday when everything is wrond

It's a perfect day for feelin' this way it's a hell of a time for speaking your mind when nothing is as it seems daydream

For so long
I've been tired of the things I do
for so long
all this weight up on my shoulders
for so long
ive been tired of the things I do
for so long, so long

Sunshine, strawberry wine a little taste of leather and lace colour blind it's all in my mind temporary insanity it's a perfect day for feeling this way it's a hell of a time for speaking your mind when nothing is at it seems

It's a perfect day for feeling this way its a hell of a time for speaking your mind when nothing is as it seems daydream
