

Touch

Wave

Here I sit alone thinking about today there's things I should have done things I didn't say I never thought it would turn into a fight
I know how you must feel tonight
I'll do anything to make it right
I was caught up in the rush
I never knew how much

I need your touch
can't get enough won't let you get away together we fit so perfectly
when you touch me that way it's more than words can say

The days are passing by and time is moving slow I've got nowhere to turn I've got nowhere to go
I try to tell myself I'm doing fine
I've been over this a million times
I try to hide but I'm losing my mind
I want to win your trust I never knew how much

I need your touch

What are you thinking of do you feel the same as me why can't we go back to where we used to be
I need your touch
can't get enough
won't let you get away
don't let it slip away there'll be a better day and if I had my way this is what you'd say

I need your touch can't get enough
I'll never let you get away
won't let you get away
