Hideaway

Wavves

You say you didn't want to call with bad news
But I'm not surprised cause that what you always do
The day you would really blow me away
Is the day you're outside you're outside looking up and you say
Today could be anything I want it to be
And that's gonna be a reflection of me
So I should be careful of everything I see

I'll do my best to hideaway
From all of the bullshit chasing me
I don't care if times erasing me
It's been torture existing this long

You say the grass is greener on the other side
But I know the truth is that everything dies
The field looks so pretty but it's covered in land mines

Today could be anything I want it to be
And that's gonna be a reflection of me
So I should be careful of everyone I meet
Cause I don't want your dark cloud around me

I'll do my best to hideaway
From all of the bullshit chasing me
I don't care of times erasing me
It's been torture existing this long

Please get me back to my hideaway
Please get me back to my hideaway
Please get me back, please get me back
Please get me back to my hideaway

Please get me back to my hideaway
Please get me back to my hideaway
Please get me back, please get me back
Please get me back to my hideaway
