

Nervous

Waves

I've tried to leave
Please lie to me
I've tried to leave
Please lie to me
I've tried to leave
Please lie to me
I've tried to leave
Please lie to me
I've tried to leave

My head was whirling in an endless pattern
These hearts will break, but I'm getting better
So many people whose days were altered
For selfish reasons I could not conquer

I need to promise you that I will not go far
I feel my nervousness, but nothing's good alone
I need to promise you that I will not go far
I feel my nervousness, but nothing's good alone
I need to promise you that I will not go far
I feel my nervousness, but nothing's good alone
I need to promise you that I will not go far
I feel my nervousness, but nothing's good alone
