Wax Tailor

Now count backward from ten
Ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four...
What comes after four
Two...

Keep concentrating
Just relax
Just concentrate and make your mind a blank
Ok relax, please take this seriously
[sample: A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy (dir. Woody Allen, 1982); voice: Woody Allen as Andrew]
Relax and have a good time

Tell me everything you remember

You're trying to hypnotize me
[sample: Alice (dir. Woody Allen, 1990); voice: Mia Farrow as Mrs. Alice Tate]

Yes, it's true
Please, breathe deeply, deeply, very deeply
And just concentrate, concentrate Concentrate, concentrate

At the count of three you will awaken
And remember nothing
You will have no memories of these trance feelings
None
You will not be upset by them
One, you are coming out
Two, you are nearly conscious
Three

There's nothing unusual in you childhood
Let's examine your present life
Let us examine every detail, every detail, every detail

Now tell me what you see
