

Only Once

Wax Tailor

For only once in your life
Only once in your
For Only once in your life
Only once in your life

Ladies and gentlemen, let's hear it
Relax, take it easy, don't get excited
For once in your look at me as I really am
I don't understand
It's not easy
And that's something nobody can change, not even you
You've become a serious composer
And what have you become, a juke box hero

For only once in your life
Only once in your
For only once in your life
Only once in your life

Ladies and gentlemen, let's hear it
Do it buddy, do it, you're young
Today, you will something you'll never ever see again in your life
Well this is not a script
There's some real actual life going on

I shall
I shall play
I shall
I shall play and sing at the same time

For only once in your life
Only once in your
For only once in your life
Only once in your life

End of song, beginning of story
Only once
Only once
Only once
Only once
