

Walk The Line

Wax Tailor

Today's story is about a kid with a great future...
But he had something more important.
He had...heart!

'And now ladies and gentlemen, the makers of human emotions'

'we interrupt this program to bring you a special news bulletin'

Yes!....that tune!

The truth, you can't handle the truth it parades right in front of you tell me what you gonna do
Be on top of your game so what i call this
A ball's quick to smash the pressure on the heartless

So everyday i gotta walk the line
You gotta tell me how you're feeling and rhyme I gotta tell you how i'm feeling and rhyme [and say] You gotta hear it how i'm feeling and rhyme and want the truth? [the truth?]

you can't handle the truth
it parades right in front of you

You gotta tell me how you're feeling and rhyme [and say]
I gotta tell you how i'm feeling and rhyme [and yo]
You gotta hear it how i'm feeling and rhyme

Looking at my Casio
About that time to take some military action yo i gots to shine
and the only way to do it is to stay fluid with the band so am a stay on the grind plus walk a thin live i gots to get mine
with the restraint of doin' drums i'm a motivate

like a guy totting a blind??? do this shit or ????? i'm searching and tryin to find a reason to stay alive crossfading to survive

By coming obstacles
gotta a pack of the piece of the pie Wild wild west

I gotta reach it for the sky
When i rock into the top of the mountain Divines what they call me
so follow me
all in together now

Defy from rest of the testing my limits
word up and invest life sentence for this and i'm meant for this shit like Van Horse??? from Wax Taylor we bringin' it from the soul like our first name was DeLa

To all my people
this is it
hey kid, walk straight master you high to this catacomb of belevo let me take you back using my ???atlantic cause???

I setup rhymes for a decoy I'm the other brother watch the MCs we destroy in this binary? operation what's you facin'?
my man Wax Taylor and the big Oh force creator

Galaxy of Planecies??? for the world to see it's beautiful thing but deadly like a sword swing animation frequencies run faster than Mercury with a telegram to let you know you not the man Examine the hologram we'll see you soon
switch to tune as we put the self control to sonic boom
it's so dramatic your heart will scribblein salvation???? to us it's supernatural when we discuss
