

Abhorrent

Wax

Here, hoard some more of this
Laborious work I perform with an assortment
Of tortured recordists
The path less traveled has an additional fork
That leads to enlightenment which happens to be right where my studio door is Rest assured there's no noise ordinance
So poised during performance I'd have Michael Jordan's endorsement
I prefer to speak in chords and choruses
Lovingly adorned with a bunch of abhorrent horse shit

Yo... let me get my notes together
I put raw quotes together like god put Hall and Oates together
Fuckin' with me is a hopeless endeavor
I'm too focused and clever, go-getter no one better
Throw every letter you ever wrote in a shredder
I've come across poetry better on a truck stop lavatory door
We ain't in the same category your
Strategy should be to practice in the laboratory more
Uh...

When the dust and the ink settles I'll be at Prince level
When I'm gone I'll be at a "we ain't heard nobody like him since" level
But for now I got a thick schedule
Since I had a kid I've ripped several pages out of it
I'm adamant about my time I can't offer to share
If you don't, offer a fare I am off the affair
You mad that I skipped your town you can talk to the mayor
And tell him I send my condolences and offer a prayer

Ayo wax got writing that is awfully rare
To a sasquatch sighting I am often compared
I am neither all there nor rapped too tight
My aptitude on the mic might atrophy, in light
Of that

I gotta get my art out shaprly
Before the artificial intelligence inevitably outsmarts me
Some say I judge myself harshly
But soon human creativity will mostly be for show like parsley

I'm the last of a dying breed
Telling my children I got arrested for a dime of weed
They don't even know that slang
Most of my references are throwbacks, like astronauts throw back tang

Rap for the fuck of it
In the spirit of those Instagram parkour people jumpin' shit
The love is in the unexplicable addictive rush you git
I'm hovering way up above you nothings that I'm up against

Your eggs in one basket? I done smashed it
I hope, it was fun while it lasted ya dumb bastid
If the dunce cap fits wear it
"Wax is the greatest" is the favorite statement of your bitch's parrot

The line between laughter and crying's thin as a hair is
So when I put my soul in my music I grin and bare it

I don't get no embarrassment when I share it
I was gifted a particularly singular style of merit

I find truth in my voice so I speak more
In a world where its hard to find what you seek for
A been a beacon of light to the plenty of people that might have a valid reason to hike
To the zenith of Pikes Peak for

Either way, for the view or the dive
I'm the adrenaline reminding you you're truly alive
Its one thing to do whatever you gotta do to survive
Another thing for a human to thrive

To sketch my potential with a pencil
You'd have to use the exponentially expanding universe's edge as a stencil
Check my credentials
Their tatted on my testicle and pictured in the dictionary under unconventional

If I am in a slim hall way you need to move through
Finding another route through'd probably behoove you
Use me as a guiding light will improve you
Maybe even soothe you
Ahh...
