

High like biscus
Fly like a discus
High risk that you'll get kicked in the meniscus
Beast in the business
Voted the least listless
If you got a lisp I will shit on your christh-misth

Parade route getting rained out
Your lame mouth, keep my name out
Drama is what I ain't 'bout
History books I'm aiming now to take a page out

Susan B Anthony
The way that I get paid is exclusively, handsomely
Your girl Google's me, enchantedly
I rap randomly

Weird like Al
Revered like Paul
I'm Raw
Fucking with me is a sever type of faux pas
Listen close
Shh
Hear a slight guffaw
A knee slapping reaction, me laughing

I am sea captain like a rocket scientist-esque
I'm the guy that's at the podium, and guy at the desk
I'm the last action hero, you a side kick at best
Any praise that I gave was provided in jest

Uh
Give rhyming a rest
I ask god, what is this, some kind of a test

He replied with that mess
The devil plays the fiddle
I guess god is Hendrix-esque

Silly goose getting really loose
Goat like Billy bringing brilliant truths
Into the light
Well suited to bite
Interludes that I write
Are the exuberant type

It's electric
Boogey-oogey-oogey kid I'm decadent
The shoul da put me in The Revenant
I'da killed that bear, weaponless

I get the main part, the lion's share
Yeah, you know the "mane" part, like a lion's hair
Go to the science fair you'll find me there
My methodology's decidedly rare
