We roll back in, watch your whole faction start collapsing
Y'all just collapse
We can't be stopped, I don't mean to brag, but goddamn we hot

Y'all just collapse

We roll back in, watch your whole faction start collapsing
Y'all just collapse
We can't be stopped – it's Wax and Komplex, goddamn we hot

Hey yo it's 15 dollars for a gram of dro
And 50 cents for the blunt that I plan to roll
And four-fifty gas money up in Amoco
So I guess this twenty dollar bill's ample dough
For me to
Get all I need for a slam and show
Call Herbal T get up in the van and go
To the club get the mic in my hand and flow
And watch every fan just go bananas yo
Matter of fact the whole scene's just pande-
-monium, you see them all screaming godamn and ho
And if the mic feeds back
I'll take the sound man and throw
His ass into the Atlantic oh shit
MC's admit that I ran the show
And when it's done, Disney World's where I to go
I ask you How Does It Feel like D'Angelo
Like "does it feel good?"
And you answer no, because you

Soon as I breath the stanzas classic
Smooth on the beat like Al with land
Cats is truly unique like Marylin Manson
I don't move with the freaks but thanks for asking
You with the deal your jams is blasting
Huge with the appeal like Samuel Jackson
But you not there, my man, you're acting
Take two, on the reel, lights, camera, action
When the truth get revealed, the fans is laughing
Used this how you feel like a nasty napkin
Blew you off your heels you're landing backwards
Like you doing cartwheels, handstands, and back flips
While true MC's, [?] and masses
You couldn't see with contacts and glasses
You couldn't be where Kom and Wax is
And if you refuse to nail your whole back collapses
