

Do it All Again

Wax

Yeah, hm

The clock melts when you dip into that realm
When that pen moves itself
Something different's at the helm
I delve into that place
With grace
I dwell in it
Heal every cell livin' within myself
With it since twelve I've held on to this writin' habit
From rites of passage to midlife crisis havin'
It's taken me to places I could not have imagined
But I'd still be doing this shit even if it hadn't
A passion drawn
From those who passed and gone
Who passed it on, something I'ma also pass along to the next
The source too complex
To fathom it
My brain's too small but my instincts are adequate
I don't question that space, I just inhabit it
It's natural, that's why I often come off as passionate Minutes on the clock tick fast as shit
That's all you get
Then like my brother Herbs said, "That's it."

If this one don't hit
We know it's not the end
Even if we miss
We do it all again
And if I wake up tomorrow
With nothing to my name

We just do it all again

Do it, do it, do it, do it
Do it, do it, do it (Do it all again)
Do it, do it, do it, do it
Do it, do it, do it

I ain't tryna reinvent the wheel
I ain't seekin' a new thrill
Had some demons in my past, I got some demons in me still I'm tryna keep 'em at bay
Not let 'em lead me astray
I been up recently, I'm tryna keep it that way

A healthy home's like Rome, it wasn't built in one day
You don't take one pill, you rehabilitate
I still escape into my music like I did back as a kid
A way to cope with this cold world in which we live

At times I felt I didn't give it all I had to give
It took a long time to learn how sacred this is My creativeness is a mix of anguish and bliss
It's the greatest of gifts, I'm grateful that it exists

And you ain't gotta make music to relate to this shit

We all got a different way of making sense of this Seemingly senseless mess
From death my flesh and bones are defenseless
But what it creates is endless

If this one don't hit
Even if we miss
We do it all again

Do it, do it, do it, do it
