

Easy Life

Wax

This song, It's called the easy life, which is the life that I lead

And if you want to lead this life with me, please do so

I'm living this easy life all summer

And I'll been living this easy life all next time all the next ten winters too

Come on, baby, let me share this easy life with you

I'm living this easy life, I'm just chillin'

And every single day of the week, you can catch me grillin'

And I ain't worried about nothing but the flavor of this chicken

So if you feel like dippin', then you're invited to my barbecue

They say that life's what you make it

And right now, man, I'm liking it basic

Most of the problems in life that I'm faced with

Is really nothing but some trifling fake shit

I'm feeling like Keanu Reeves in The Matrix

And I ain't saying I believe in them spaceships

I'm just saying that I'm seeing this fakeness

Put a piece of beef on a plate. Bitch

Let's go

Give up, your will to blame

And enjoy my open flame

Let me be your Novocaine, It's so soon

I'm living this easy life. Nothing goes wrong

My life's so easy, I can only write these simple songs

Come on, baby. I know that it's not that hard

To take this walk through into my backyard

Come on, baby. Share this easy life with me

With me. With me

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. Woo!

I'm living this easy life. Nothing goes wrong

My life's so easy, I can only write these simple songs

Come on, baby. I know that it's not that hard

To take this walk through into my backyard

Come on, baby. Share this easy life with me

With me. With me

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
