It's You

Wax

I wish I could be more empathetic
I know deep down you've got a good heart
But every day you've got a new problem
And you serve it to me a la carte

Well I've already got my own plate
And that motherfucker's pretty full as is
So I ain't got no extra headspace
Or the time for all your foolishness

Because you're always fuckin' up
In every thing you do
You say the universe is at fault...
Nah

It's you

So the next time you get in trouble
Find some other person to call
I can't be your shoulder to lean on
If you gonna lean so hard that I fall

I didn't think that you'd be a pigeon
You know, once you give them bread, they come back
I ain't responsible for how you've been livin'
Or for giving you the things that you lack
Ay

Because you're always fuckin' up
In everything you do
You say the universe is at fault...
Nah

It's you
It's you

It's you, not the universe
It's just you, not the universe
It's only you, not the universe
It's gotta be you, not the universe

The universe ain't do that shit to you
That was some shit that you thought you should do
That universe ain't make you do that shit
That was the way that you decided to live

Because you're always fuckin' up
In everything you do
You say the universe is at fault...
Nah

It's you
