

Waves

Wax

Oh life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Cause life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Oh life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Cause life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Oh life just comes in waves

I dream about flying from my worries
No problems, no hurries
Just doing my thing
I dream about quitting this job
No 9-5 telling me that I can't sing
I dream about traveling the world
More laughs
More moments
More times with my girl ah
I dream about a life with less stress
Riding my wave till the sun comes set
Look
All my highs never felt so low
All a sudden time never felt so slow
Life passes by
We watch it go
Rise and fall like tides we flow oh

I'ma make the best of my days
Little love and purpose
That's all we crave
Betta slow my roll before we fade
Been around long enough to know

Life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Cause life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Oh life just comes in waves

This morning it was all good
The wave you on could crash before you thought it would
So feel the air while you standin'
And breathe deep and prepare for the what are you bout to land in Submerged in the stressful abyss
Sometimes the thought that drowning be soundin' like nothing short of bliss
Whatever trouble that you're tortured with
That makes you think
"Damn, life's gotta mean more than this"
Whether God sent or just coincidence
I feel like I've been gettin' tested recently in many different instances
Every time I'm on top
The rug gets pulled out from under me
And suddenly I
Drop
There's no winnin'
On that gold medal podium, they do some singin'

And you put that fancy medal in your luggage
That you're bringing back home
Then you keep on livin'

Oh life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Cause life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Oh life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Cause life just comes in waves
That's why I ride my high when I can
Oh life just comes in waves
