

Just Watch Your Mama and Me

Waylon Jennings

You are my children, my gifts to the World, you are the lights of my life,
You all have your good hearts, you have your own strenght, so I know you'll all do all the right.
As I look to the future from this day in time, the truth is I d on't have the clue,
There are modern day wonders I don't understand, so I'll give t hat all up to you.

But if you want to learn how to dance, just watch your mama and
me,
Just a good ol' boy and his lady, nothin' too fancy to see,
If you want to be happy, just watch your mama and me.

There are so many changes, changing too fast, things I know not hing about,
Some things remain, just stay the same, and that's where I migh t help you out.

So if you want to learn how to dance, just watch your mama and
me,
Just a good ol' boy and his lady, nothin' too fancy to see,
If you want ot be happy, just watch your mama and me.
