

My Baby Walks All Over Me

Waylon Jennings

Young Davy Crockett walked the mountains
Captain Davy Jones, he walked the sea
And I'd walk on any man who tried to steal my baby

And my baby, she walks all over me

Don't get me wrong, she's quite a woman
She's sweet and dear and she knows where she stands
She loves me long, she loves me wrong
She rules me and I like it
Well, I guess that's just a part of nature's plan

A man likes to rule in his own castle
I lay down the law, she smiles and then agrees
She waits until I'm through and then she does what she started to

Because she knows she can walk all over me

Don't get me wrong, she's quite a woman
She's sweet and dear and she knows where she stands
She loves me long, she loves me wrong
She rules me and I like it
Well, I guess that's just a part of nature's plan

A man likes to rule in his own castle
I lay down the law, she smiles and then agrees
Well, she waits until I'm through and then she does what she started to

Because she knows she can walk all over me

My baby, she walks all over me
My baby, she walks all over me
Uh-huh, my baby, she walks all over me
