Playboy

Waylon

They call me a playboy
As I'm making my routes
She's in the bright lights
Of it's nights fucking town
Oh I never show it
My heart's breaking in two
They call me a playboy
But I'm just lonesome for you

I once had a real love
That was when I had you
And now I never feel love
With somebody new
This false front I'm wearing
Is just to cover my blue's
They call me a play-ay-boy
I'm just lonesome for you

I once had a real love
That was when I had you
And now I never feel love
With somebody new
This false front I'm wearing
Is just to cover my blue's
They call me a play-ay-boy
I'm just lonesome for you

They call me a playboy
As I'm making my routes
She's in the bright lights
Oh I never show it
My heart's breaking in two
They call me a playboy
But I'm just lonesome for you
