

Changed In a Moment

Wayne Watson

Changed in a moment
In the twinkling of an eye
Take a look into Glory
Seated at the feet of God the Father
Singing with the Angels, Alleluia!
Any moment now you could be changed

I have heard it for some time now
This life will soon be done
That our striving will be over
And the war will soon be won
That the Lord Himself will call us
That the trumpet blast will sound
And the graves will all be opened
And Holy feet will leave the ground

Changed in a moment
In the twinkling of an eye
Take a look into Glory
Seated at the feet of God the Father
Singing with the Angels, Alleluia!
Any moment now you could be changed

Oh, I remember praying
In the happy days of youth
For the world to keep on turning
There was so much left to do

There were battlefields to conquer
There were mountains left to climb
And dreams to be realized
But now I've changed my mind
Some of the goals that seemed unreachable
Are finally in my grasp
Some of the dreams most unbelievable
Have come to be at last
And although I've had a better life
Than I ever thought could be
There is a better day a-coming
When He comes back for you and me

Changed in a moment
In the twinkling of an eye
Take a look into Glory
Seated at the feet of God the Father
Singing with the Angels, Alleluia!
Any moment now, any moment now
Any moment now we could be changed
Any moment now we could be changed
Any moment now we could be changed
Any moment now we could be changed
Any moment now we could be changed
