

Die Without You

Wayne Wonder

Baby
You are my darling
Yeah, oh-oh-oh, baby

Is it my turn to wish you were lying here?
I tend to dream you when I'm not sleeping
Is it my turn, the fiction of my world?
Or even imagine your emotions
Tell myself anything, yeah, baby

Is it my turn to hold you by your hands?
Tell you I love you when you're not near me
Is it my turn to totally understand
To watch you walk out of my life
And not do a damn thing, yeah

If I could give away the feeling that I'm feeling
If I could sacrifice, whatever babe, whatever baby
If I could to take apart all that I am
For anything that I wouldn't do

'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah, baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah, baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you

Oh-oh, I apologize for all the things I've done
But now I'm underwater and I'm drowning
Is it my turn to be the one to cry?
Isn't it amazing how some things completely turn around, yeah
So take every little piece of my heart (piece of my heart)
Take every little piece of my soul (piece of my soul)
Oh baby, take every little bitty piece of my mind
'Cause if you do, yeah

'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah, baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you
I mean it baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah, baby

If I could give away the feeling that I'm feeling
If I could sacrifice, whatever babe, whatever baby
If I could to take apart all that I am
For anything that I wouldn't do

'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah, yeah

'Cause inside I'd die without you (darling, darling)
'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you ('cause inside)

'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah baby
'Cause inside I'd die without you, yeah, yeah
'Cause inside I'd die without you, oh baby
