No hesitation now, now
We 'bout to have a good time, good time

Yeah yea uh
It's gonna be a good time
Yeah ey

Using my entire life's luck to bet on you and I
This time I'll understand the most perennial dream
Accidentally exposed my intentions
Just want to bring you with me
Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah
Imagine the sweet and sour emotions
Between the two of us
Warm emotions of your laughter
I'm not tired at all, as long as you're here with me
Doesn't matter how difficult the road, I'd still be happy

Every sunrise with you
Everyone's envious of
If we can turn back time
I would embrace again, love again

If you wanna have a good time, good time

Only stopping for you, my time, my time
Get ready, wait for me, on my way, on my way
Holding hands every day, oh, good day, oh, good day

If you wanna have a good time, good time
I'll let you have all of my time, my time
Rushing to your side, on my way, on
Embrace you every day, oh, good day, oh, good day

I'm reflected in your eyes
Don't want to part with you, even for a second
When I walk towards you, the world is quiet
I'm so lucky
On that day's first incidental encounter
I suddenly envisioned the future
Entranced by your soft voice
I only want to hold your hand forever

I like every morning
Hello, pretty baby
Giving you a prompt morning call
Softly waking you, sweetie
Cheers to us, you and I
My heart's desire is to have you
Cheers to us, you and I

No one else gonna treat you right (I'd do it)
Every sunrise with you
If we could turn back time
I would still embrace you again

If you wanna have a good time, good time
Only stopping for you, my time, my time
Get ready, wait for me, on my way, on my way
Holding hands every day, oh, good day, oh, good day

If you wanna have a good time, good time
I'll let you have all of my time, my time
Rushing to your side, on my way, on
Embrace you every day, oh, good day, oh, good day

You and I heading towards a pink coastline (Aye)
No matter rain or shine, we're shoulder to shoulder
Catch you if you fall

If you wanna have a good time, good time
Only stopping for you, my time, my time
Get ready, wait for me, on my way, on my way
Holding hands every day, oh, good day, oh, good day

If you wanna have a good time, good time
I'll let you have all of my time, my time
Rushing to your side, on my way, on
Embrace you every day, oh, good day, oh, good day
