Phantom

WayV

Uh, uh
What is it? What is it?
Uh, uh

I'm way too close to the edge
Who's the monster under my bed
Six-feet under
World shakes like thunder
All the noises in my brain
It's a pain I can't explain
When it just gets louder
Yeah, it just gets harder

(Woah)
Shadows they roar nightmares they call (Hint me)
Darkness & war dreams are no more (Leave me)
(Woah)
Ayy, look who's watching me through the window
It makes me wonder
Did I move down under?

Four, three, two, one times
I can hear the whispers cry in the night
Footsteps, but nobody moved
Scared of the path that I'll choose
Nothing can hide the truth

Like a phantom that be pulling my strings
Hey-yo, hey-yo, the puppeteer sings
Through the darkest rain the world lives in fear
This time its game over
Move the mask surrender
Your love's so dangerous
Oh, standing in the dark
Only I can see the truth so crazy
Look through the oculus
The light still shines inside of you
Grey to blue
Fade out, phantom

Hold on to your breath with a new ambition
Sound in the dark see the new conviction
Can't get out, uh, of the phantom tower
Life is like a lie, call it déjà vu
Ordinary eyes make it seem so true
When it just gets louder
Yeah, it just gets harder

(Woah)
Stop all the tears break through your fears (Lead me)
Clouds are nowhere vision is clear (Get it)
(Woah)
Ayy, Phoenix rise above this world of lies
It's almost over
The truth is closer

Four, three, two, one times

High above the night, we shining our light
Echoes I hear in my room
Feel like I'm searching the truth
Free and I feel alive

Like a phantom that be pulling my strings
Hey-yo, hey-yo, the puppeteer sings
Through the darkest rain the world lives in fear
This time its game over
Move the mask surrender
Your love's so dangerous
Oh, standing in the dark
Only you can see the truth, so babe
Look through the oculus
The light still shines inside of you
Grey to blue
Fade out, phantom

Yeah, ready for the power, the control
Breaking off reality, the hold
Taking back the rest of me
Like the way ahead of me
Not afraid, now you can see, uh, uh

You can say that time cheated on me
We just gotta block out the noise and just let it go
Without warning
My soul gaining control over you
Keeping me alive
I'm born to survive
Truth alive

Like a phantom that be pulling my strings
Hey-yo, hey-yo, the puppeteer sings (My feelings, yeah)
Through the darkest rain, the world lives in fear (The world lives in fear)
This time its game over
Move the mask surrender
Your love's so dangerous
Oh, standing in the dark (Oh, standing in the)
Only you can see the truth, so babe (You see the truth)
Look through the oculus
The light still shines inside of you
Grey to blue
Fade out, phantom

Uh, uh
What is it? What is it?
Uh, uh
