Ignition sequence starts
Six Five Four Three Two One
(Fly)

Yeah the rain suffocates the city
Neon lights are shining brightly
Street lights shining on Skywalkers silhouette
Mysterious feathers swirling refusing to leave
Like the believer of legends hey
I discovered a UFO
People look to the sky
But act as if nothing had happened

Yeah yeah the smell of smoke in the air
Why do I hear the sound of my heartbeat as a countdown?
As if the launch pad is ready
The earth shakes when the button is pressed
The wind blows wildly
Yeah if there is no record recorded
Don't be sad with it
Your freedom can't be wronged
Like a mysterious, nonexistent signal
That appears like a fire on the radar

Can I be honest
I so hate to be controlled oh no no
The rules of flight has only one rule
Which is to forget all the rules
If you want to climb up or rotate (in a plane)
Trust only the compass of free will

Flying wingless
I'm ready for take off take off
Towards the outside sky take off
Flying wingless
I'm ready for take off take off

Face towards the outside sky take off
Galloping is the wildness of your life
You have ambition that can resist gravity
You exist as the exception
So baby face towards the outside sky
Take off yeah
Oh oh who can stop me from flying to the sky
Oh oh flying wingless
I'm ready for take off

(Three, Two, One)
Talkin' 'bout
Why is natural selection of the soul greedy?
DNA determines the survival of the fittest
Perhaps the beauty I long for
Has disappeared from the face of the earth
I will look toward the city in the sky

Yeah jump strongly, focus on raising your two arms
Waving and roaring have height
Yeah and the world
I understand that I am not understood
So let them hunt for those with no wings
Rock your world
Bright celestial beings
Can be me and you

Flying wingless
I'm ready for take off take off
Towards the outside sky take off
Flying wingless
I'm ready for take off take off
Face towards the outside sky take off
Galloping is the wildness of your life
You have ambition that can resist gravity
You exist as the exception
So baby face towards the outside sky
Take off

(Fly)
Take off (Fly)
Take off
Oh looking over the earth
As you conquer the universe behind you
The beat of the countdown like usual say goodbye
Towards a profound future, we will fly

Flying wingless
I'm ready for take off take off
Towards the outside sky take off
Flying wingless
I'm ready for take off take off
Face towards the outside sky take off
Defined by my heartbeat
This is an incredible flight
You are a witness as my companion
So baby face towards the outside sky
Take off take off

Come on face towards the outside sky
Take off take off
Bring all of your goodness
Come on face towards the outside sky

Take off take off
Bring all of your goodness
Oh oh who can stop me from flying to the sky
Oh oh flying wingless
Take take off flying
