

All Things

We Are Messengers

Don't be surprised when the light comes
Through the window at the dawn
I know it felt like a long night
But you did good to hold on
To the promises He made
Oh, they never let you down
I promise you the light comes
You just gotta stick around

The sun rose up this morning
And the birds are flying high
They remind me of Your goodness
That today is gonna be alright
And I don't wanna waste another second
Chasing anything but You
'Cause You make old things, all things just like new (Yeah)

Don't go rushing, don't you hurry
There's some things you gotta learn
There's beauty in the heartache
There's diamonds in the dirt
I know you'll see it soon
You just can't see it now
There's meaning in the hard times
You just gotta stick around

The sun rose up this morning
And the birds are flying high
They remind me of Your goodness
That today is gonna be alright
And I don't wanna waste another second
Chasing anything but You
'Cause You make old things, all things just like new

Every day, yeah, He's so, so good
Every night, yeah, He's so, so good
When it gets tough
When it gets rough
I know He's so so good
Every day, yeah, He's so, so good
Every night, yeah, He's so, so good
When it gets tough
When it gets rough
I know He's so, so good

The sun rose up this morning
And the birds are flying high
They remind me of Your goodness
That today is gonna be alright
And I don't wanna waste another second
Chasing anything but You
'Cause You make old things, all things just like new
'Cause You make old things, all things just like new
