

My Ghost

We Are Messengers

I've heard whispers in the hallways of my mind
They haunt the caverns of my heart
And I fight day and night in the warring for my soul
I feel You closer in the dark

You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost

I'd been held under a spell, but I'm not that dead man walking
You resurrect the wreckage of my past
Nothing can ever take the life you've breathed in me
Spirit consuming all I am

You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost

I'm a new creation
The old has passed away
You see me as I am
My flesh is just a memory
And You alone remain

You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost, my ghost
You're my ghost
You're my ghost
