

Woke up at three, got dressed, my car pulled up a minute later
Had coffee in a paper cup through my refrigerator
It took two hours to get to the airport, though
There was some traffic at that hour but the bridge temporarily closed

Hi

How did you get here so fast?

Hi

How did you—, how did you get here so fast?

A couple flights, a couple airports, I've arrived in time
To catch the boat downriver where I [?]
[?] make the last run to the capital, if
I miss the train, I have to sleep there on the station floor

Two whole days

Seven hours just to

See your face

But you're pissed off now that I'm here

What are you doing in here?

What are you doing in here?

Two whole days

Seven hours I spent to

See your face

And hold you tonight

It's the best part of life

The best part of both of our lives

So why do I feel like you're pissed off to see me?
