

Good Answer

We Are Scientists

Handing me the Holy Ghost
Still dressed up in your wedding clothes
Soaking wet and lacking most
This is how it always goes

Pius has a pinnacle
Just as indefensible
God, you are impossible
At least just be responsible

So much for your second chance
If you're wondering what comes next
Just don't ask 'cause you might not get
A good answer, a good answer

So shake your fist and land it out
Grab one, never settle down
With these, with things to sweat about
I guess we can forget it now

So much for your second chance
If you're wondering what comes next
Just don't ask 'cause you might not get
A good answer, a good answer

I stood around and considered
A million ways to win you back
What good is that

So much for your second chance
If you're wondering what comes next
Just don't ask 'cause you might not get
A good answer, a good answer
