

Hey friend of mine
Don't keep chasing your tail
At least not on my dime
Maybe you're right
But you say our ships sailed
But perhaps not tonight

Say something now
Or just fade slowly out
There's no guessing the ending
Hold me in mind
Cause you're always on mine
Thanks for the memories

Fate won't decide
So who's shaping your plans?
This is your place in time
Face it we've tried
But it's out of our hands
So I've made up my mind

Say something now
Or just fade slowly out
There's no guessing the ending
Hold me in mind
Cause you're always on mine
Thanks for the memories

Maybe it's not worth the membrane
If all that we are is pretending
I keep holding on if you'll let me

Say something now
Or just fade slowly out
Let's pick an ending
Hold me in mind
Cause you're always on mine
Thanks for the memories
Thanks for the memories
