

Starry-Eyed

We Are Scientists

Dumber than I look
Impossible as that may seem
I'm always thunderstruck
And dumbfounded perpetually
Now and then
I find I'm in this same position
Once again

I'm starry-eyed whenever we're together
I'm sorry I still let you get the better of me
I promise I get this way only when you're here
On the side, I'm sorry I'm not sorry, I'm just
Starry-eyed

I know I shouldn't hate
I'm in no position to talk
'Cause in my current state
My faculties can't even clock
What's happening
It's like I don't even listen
Once again

I'm starry-eyed whenever we're together
I'm sorry I still let you get the better of me
I promise I get this way only when you're here
On the side, I'm sorry I'm not sorry, I'm just
Starry-eyed

Infinitesimally glowing
But at least where we're going
Pick the signs up, exploding
Well, at least now we both know it
Well, at least now we both know it

I'm starry-eyed whenever we're together
I'm sorry I still let you get the better of me
I promise I get this way only when you're here
On the side, I'm sorry I'm not sorry, I'm just
Starry-eyed
