We Came As Romans

I've looked death in the eyes
And I killed my fears
I've accepted the fight, I choose to be here
I've looked death in the eyes, and she looked away
Because I fought for my place and I earned my name

Everyday is another chance to build
Any pain only feeds my will
Every doubt I've been conquering to grow
I'm back on my feet every time I fall
Every time I fall
I can't be stopped
