

Daydreams

We Three

She's all I read
She's all the literature that I'll ever need
She's poetry
But she's like the good kind that doesn't make me sleep

Her eyes her porn and she knows it
Won't shut her eyelids 'til she gets invited
We're not keeping score
But she's winning
Likes it when I'm singing, as long as it's for her

Daydreams they feel like living when I'm dreaming about her
She's all I breathe when I should be breathing air
She knows I'm weak, yeah I
Daydream every day about the things we do at night

She likes the word "please", but not the polite kind the one in the sheets
She knows she's a tease
She's here for a good time then she's gonna leave

She'll start a war and she knows it
Won't stop her fighting 'til my flag is rising
We're not keeping score
But she's winning likes it when I'm singing as long as it's 'bout her

Daydreams they feel like living when I'm dreaming about her
She's all I breathe when I should be breathing air
She knows I'm weak, yeah I
Daydream every day about the things we do at night

(Ooh)

Daydreams they feel like living when I'm dreaming about her
She's all I breathe when I should be breathing air
She knows I'm weak, yeah I
Daydream every day about the things we do at night
