

Exes Flowers

We Three

Your ex used to buy you flowers
Didn't even matter what kind
You were never gonna think that they were pretty
Then you wouldn't speak to him for hours
Cause girl you're on your own time
You kinda liked you lived in different cities

You knew they thought you were an asshole
Cause someone who is that cold
Everybody thinks they're only shitty
But your ex he used to buy you flowers
Didn't even matter what kind
Cause he'd only ever buy 'em when he was cheatin'

She's only an asshole, when you tell her lies
She's only quiet, when you don't deserve replies
She never cries now
Cause she don't know how
She'll never think she's pretty
Just like her ex's flowers
(Just like her ex's flowers)

She takes like seven different showers
They give her superpowers
Cause if she's smelling pretty
She thinks he'll want em less
But all he's wanting is her towel
Then she turns from sweet to sour
Then he's walking out the door fuck the next best

You knew they thought you were an asshole
Cause someone who is that cold
Everybody thinks they're only shitty
But your ex he used to buy you flowers
Didn't even matter what kind
Cause he'd only ever buy 'em when he was cheatin'

She's only an asshole, when you tell her lies
She's only quiet, when you don't deserve replies
She never cries now
Cause she don't know how
She'll never think she's pretty
Just like her ex's flowers
Just like her ex's flowers

Now I can never buy her flowers
And I text her every hour
Just see her look at me like I would do the same
She's still locked up in her tower
I climb higher every hour

She's only an asshole, when you tell her lies
She's only quiet, when you don't deserve replies
She never cries now
Cause she don't know how
She'll never think she's pretty

Just like her ex's flowers
Just like her ex's flowers
