

Lifeline

We Three

Can you call my lifeline cause I give up
And I'll raise my white flag and just give in
Cause I'm barely breathing, got no reason for grieving, that's just how I feel
I'm just trying to be real

Wish I could turn the switch on,
Leave it on all damn day long,
Get it tattooed on my arm
Just because they told me not to

Wish I could turn you all off
Say it without going soft
But we all know that I'm not
One to tell you you have got to

Shiver, feel it, take it, break it, make it what you wanna
Lose it, choose it, find it, mind it, bruise it, use it how you're gonna
Shiver, feel it, take it, break it, make it what you wanna
Lose it, choose it, find it, mind it, bruise it use, it how you're gonna

Can you call my lifeline cause I give up
And I'll raise my white flag and just give in
Cause I'm barely breathing, got no reason for grieving, that's just how I feel
I'm just trying to be real
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh
I'm just trying to be real

Wish I believed the things I pray
9 times out of 10 they're too cliché
What I wouldn't give for a replay
2AM and still no sleeping

The numbers and figures don't add up
But I'm not really sure if it matters
Cause lately life's full of disasters
5AM and still no sleeping

Shiver, feel it, take it, break it, make it what you wanna
Lose it, choose it, find it, mind it, bruise it, use it how you're gonna

Can you call my lifeline cause I give up
And I'll raise my white flag and just give in
Cause I'm barely breathing, got no reason for grieving, that's just how I feel
And I feel the pressure to be perfect forever, that's just how I feel
I'm just trying to be real
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh
I'm just trying to be real
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh
Yeah yeah
I'm just trying to be real
